A Python Training Program was organized by The Oxford College of Science, Arts, Commerce and Management from 28th July to 10th August 2025 in the 108 Lab. The training was attended by 20 MCA students, 226 BCA students, and 74 BSc Physical Science students from the Department of Computer Science and Applications. The sessions were conducted by Mr. Rahul Chawla and Mr. Vaibhav Rawal from Rubicon Foundation, who guided the students through fundamental to intermediate concepts in Python programming. The program was highly interactive, incorporating hands-on coding exercises, group projects, and live problem-solving sessions, which significantly enhanced the students' programming skills, logical thinking, and confidence in coding. The training played a key role in strengthening their technical foundation and preparing them for future academic projects, internships, and industry opportunities in the field of computer science.
