Name of the Event: Internship Orientation Programme

Date of the Event: 08 April 2026

Place of the Event: 407 Seminar Hall

Organised By: Department of Commerce and Management

Introduction

The Department of Commerce and Management organized an Internship Orientation Programme for BBA and B.Com students on 8th April 2026 at the college auditorium. The session aimed to prepare students for their upcoming internships by providing essential guidance, industry insights, and practical expectations.

The programme was graced by Dr. Mohammed Farooq Pasha, General Secretary of BUTCCM and a distinguished academician, who served as the resource person. His expertise and experience added significant value to the session, helping students understand the real-world dynamics of internships and career development.

The orientation emphasized the importance of internships as a bridge between academic learning and professional application, especially in today's competitive and skill-driven environment.

Objectives of the Programme

The key objectives of the Internship Orientation Programme were:

1. To create awareness among students about the importance of internships in career development.
2. To provide clarity on internship structure, expectations, and evaluation criteria.
3. To guide students on how to select suitable internship opportunities aligned with their career goals.
4. To enhance employability skills, including communication, professionalism, and workplace ethics.
5. To familiarize students with industry requirements and current market trends.
6. To prepare students mentally and professionally for real-time work environments.
