CELEBRATIONS

A day of skits and songs

Great pomp and splendour marked the first anniversary celebrations of the The Oxford Colleges of Science, Business Management, Arts and Law. Reminiscing the growth of the institutions, the Executive Director SNVL Narasimha Raju highlighted the achievements of the organisation and encouraged the students who put up a rich variety of cultural events throughout the day.

Faculty, students and the non-teaching staff shared the stage.

Folk dances of India and Africa lent colour and rhythm that had the audiences responding with energy and demanding an encore. Skits, mimicry and pantomimes entertained and sent messages of current relevance, even as they kept the audience in splits.

The star-studded event saw Diganth, Rekha and K Manju of the Kannada film world grace the occasion with words of appreciation for the students. Diganth entertained the audience with a song.

This cultural and sports extravaganza marked the culmination of competitions held over a week for both the staff and students. Prizes were given away to the winners. Dr Sharada Ajit of the Department of English was adjudged the best teacher and was felicitated. The hugely successful celebrations were co-ordinated by Gayathri Sudhir, Head, Department of Electronics and Monoo John, BBM co-ordinator.

STAR-STUDED Rekha, Manju and Diganth.
